Ideal for Distance Learning

DESK-900 HEADSET WITH MICROPHONE

A headset with open microphone, practical and light, you can wear it for a long time without feeling discomfort because it does not tighten too much on the ears.

The microphone boom can be adjusted to find the ideal position, or it can be folded up if not needed. The built-in microphone, with very low background noise, is ideal for videoconferencing and for Remote Learning with the most common software such as Skype, Zoom and Meet.

The 3.5mm jack is compatible with the most current Laptops, iMacs and Mac Books.
